ARTICLE X GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

72 A. Definitions

73 1. A "grievance" is a written allegation, made in the manner prescribed in this Article, by an Employee, group of Employees, or the Union that an express term of the Agreement has been violated, misinterpreted, or improperly applied, and that such Employee(s) or the Union has been harmed in some manner by the alleged violation.

74 2. A "grievant" is the party alleging a grievance and who has been harmed by the alleged violation.

- 75 3. A “grievance form” is the official form upon which all grievances shall be submitted. The grievance form shall set forth the nature of the grievance, the facts upon which it is based, the specific Article(s) and Section(s) violated, the harm suffered by the grievant, and the remedy requested.
- 76 4. An “informal consultation” is any discussion between the Employer and Employee that may occur before a Special Conference (pursuant to Article XXIII of this Agreement), or Step I of the official grievance procedure as indicated in Article X. E., relating to a problem identified by either party.
- 77 B. Construction
- 78 The resolution of an informal claim or grievance shall not add to, subtract from, or modify the terms of this Agreement, or serve as a binding precedent in future interpretation of application of the terms of this Agreement, unless done so in writing and approved EMU’s Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Union’s President, or their respective designees. Any such agreement reached between the Union and the Employer shall be binding on the Union, the Employer, and Employees.
- 79 C. Basic Provisions
- 80 1. The Union’s Grievance Officer and the EMU’s Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs shall be provided with a copy of all written grievances, grievance adjustments, grievance withdrawals, grievance denials, notices of appeal, notices of extension, and all other correspondence exchanged between the Union’s and the Employer’s representatives pursuant to the processing of grievances. Said copies shall be provided concurrently with the transmittal of the original correspondence exchanged between the parties’ representatives.
- 81 2. Failure to initiate any grievance within the specified time limits by the Union or the grievant(s) shall bar further processing of the grievance. Failure to appeal any grievance within the specified time limits on the part of the Union shall cause the grievance to be resolved on the basis of the last administrative decision concerning the matter(s) at issue and bar further processing of the grievance. The time limits may be extended by mutual written consent of the parties. Failure to comply with the time limits on the part of any administrative representatives will permit the grievance to proceed to the next step.
- 82 3. An Employee who participates in the grievance procedure will not be subject to discipline or reprisal because of such participation.

- 83 D. Adjustment of Informal Complaints
- 84 Any individual Employee or group of Employees may at any time present informal complaints through an informal consultation with the Employer. Said complaints may be adjusted without intervention of the Union, provided the adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement. Any such adjustments will be reduced to written form and will be conveyed to the Employee(s) and the Union at the time the adjustment is reached.
- 85 If either the Employee or Employer determines that a successful adjustment cannot be reached through the informal consultation between the Employee and the Employer, the Employer will notify the Employee and the Union in writing with a copy to Academic Human Resources. Upon receipt of this written notification, the Employee may choose to contact the Union to request a Special Conference (pursuant to Article XXIII of this Agreement), or begin the formal grievance process as described in Article X.E.
- 86 E. Grievance Procedure
- 87 1. Step I
- 88 A Step I grievance shall be filed in writing on the official grievance form by the Union. No Step I grievance will be entertained or processed unless it is submitted within twenty (20) working days of the date the Employer notifies the Union in writing that an informal consultation did not result in resolution of the alleged issue. If pursuant to Article X.D. above, a Special Conference is requested by either party during this period to discuss and/or resolve the issue, the timeline described herein shall be suspended until either a success resolution is reached, or the parties cannot agree to a resolution. The written grievance shall be served on the Head of the Department in which the Employee is employed (or other appropriate administrative representative), with a copy to the Dean of the College in which the Employee is employed and the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs.
- 89 The Department Head (or other appropriate administrative representative) will schedule a meeting with the Union to discuss the grievance with the grievant(s), the Union's representative, and other such person(s) s/he deems appropriate. This meeting shall be completed within ten (10) working days after the written notice of grievance is filed.
- 90 If no mutually agreeable resolution is reached, the Department Head (or other appropriate administrative representative) must present his/her reasons for denial of the grievance in writing to the grievant(s), with a copy to the Union, the Dean and the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs, within five (5) working days following the Step I meeting.

- 91 If a mutually agreeable resolution is reached at this Step, the resolution shall be reduced to writing, signed by the parties, and a copy provided to the Union, the Dean, and the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs.
- 92 2. Step II
- 93 If the grievance is not resolved at Step I, the Union may, within ten
(10) working days of the Step I response, appeal the grievance to the Dean of the College in which the Employee is employed (or other appropriate administrative representative) with a copy to the Employee's Department Head (or other appropriate administrative representative), and the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs. Such appeal shall be made in writing, and shall set forth the Union's objections to the Step I response.
- 94 The Dean (or other appropriate administrative representative) will schedule a meeting with the Union to discuss the grievance with the grievant(s), the Union's representative, the Department Head (or other appropriate administrative representative), and other such person(s) s/he deems appropriate. This meeting shall be completed within ten (10) working days after the written notice grievance is appealed to Step II as above provided.
- 95 If no mutually agreeable resolution is reached, the Dean (or other appropriate administrative representative) must present his/her reasons for denial of the grievance in writing to the grievant(s), with a copy to the Union, the Department Head, and the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs, within five (5) working days following the Step II meeting.
- 96 If a mutually agreeable resolution is reached at this Step, the resolution shall be reduced to writing, signed by the parties, and a copy provided to the Union, the Department Head, and the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs.
- 97 3. Step III
- 98 If the grievance is not resolved at Step II, the Union may, within ten
(10) working days of the Step II response, appeal the grievance to the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs with a copy to the Dean and the Department Head (or other appropriate administrative representative(s)). Such an appeal shall be made in writing, and shall set forth the Union's objections to the Step II response.
- 99 The Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs or his/her designee will schedule a meeting with the Union to discuss the grievance with the grievant(s), the Union's representative(s), the Department Head, Dean, or other appropriate administrative representative(s) involved at Step I and Step II, and such other person(s) s/he deems appropriate. This meeting shall be completed

- within ten (10) working days after the grievance is appealed to Step III as above provided.
- 100 If a mutually agreeable resolution is reached at this Step, the resolution shall be reduced to writing, signed by the parties, and a copy provided to the Union, the Department Head, and the Dean (or other appropriate administrative representative(s)).
- 101 If no mutually agreeable resolution is reached, the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs or his/her designee must present his/her reasons for denial of the grievance in writing to the grievant(s) with a copy to the Union, the Department Head and the Dean (or other appropriate administrative representative(s)) within five (5) working days following the Step III meeting.
- 102 4. Step IV—Arbitration
- 103 If the grievance is not resolved at Step III, the Union may submit the grievance to final and binding arbitration. Within ten (10) working days of the Step III response, the Union shall provide written notice to the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs of its intention to submit the dispute to arbitration. No new claims may be submitted to arbitration. The Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs and the Union will first meet to select a mutually agreeable neutral person to arbitrate the dispute. If the parties are unable to agree upon a neutral person, the selection shall be made in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association (AAA). Submission to AAA shall be written, with simultaneous written notice to the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs, and if not filed and noticed within thirty (30) calendar days of the Step III response, the grievance shall be barred.
- 104 F. The Arbitration Hearing and the Arbitrator's Decision and Award
- 105 Procedural issues not otherwise covered by this Agreement with respect to the conduct of the hearing, subpoenas, adjournments, etc., shall be referred to the Arbitrator who shall decide same based upon the then current rules of the American Arbitration Association.
- 106 The Arbitrator shall have no power to add to, subtract from, or modify the terms of this Agreement, nor shall s/he exercise any responsibility or function of the Employer or the Union. This is not intended to restrict the authority of the Arbitrator to the determination of issues of procedural compliance only, and s/he shall have the authority to determine substantive questions properly presented in accordance with the terms of the Grievance Procedure. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties and may be enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction. The parties shall bear their own expenses individually and share the Arbitrator's fee and expenses equally.

ARTICLE XI.

STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

- 107 A. It is agreed that on the part of the Union, there shall, during the term of this Agreement, be no strike, stoppage of work or slowdown, and on the part of EMU, no lockout.
- 108 B. In the case of any strike or other suspension of work by Employees that has not been authorized by the Union, its officers or agents, the Employer agrees that such violation of this Agreement shall not cause the Union, its officers or agents to be liable for damages, provided that the Union complies fully with the following:
- 109 1. The Union's obligation to take action shall commence immediately upon receipt of notice from the Employer that a violation has occurred.
- 110 2. Immediately upon receipt of such notice, the responsible Union representative shall immediately talk with those Employees responsible for or participating in such violation, stating to them that:
- 111 a. Their action is in violation of the Agreement, subjecting them to discharge or discipline.
- 112 b. The Union has not authorized the strike or suspension of work and does not approve or condone it.
- 113 c. The Union instructs the Employees to immediately return to their respective jobs, and submit any grievances they may have through the Grievance Procedure provided for in the Agreement.

ARTICLE XII.

- 122 3. Following the successful completion of two (2) consecutive years of full-time (100%) employment at Eastern Michigan University, a presumption of rehire shall take effect. Employees will be provided three (3) year term appointments, from September 1 of the first year until August 31 of the third year of the appointment, but in no event will any such individual appointment extend beyond the expiration of this Agreement or any extension thereof. (Employees whose individual appointments would have continued but for the expiration of this Agreement will be reinstated and will continue subject to the terms of any new or revised Agreement between the Employer and the Union.) Employees who are given a three (3) year term appointment will be provided notice of reappointment on or before December 10 of the third year of their appointment. Should such notification not be made in a timely manner, however, there will be a presumption of rehire for a consecutive three (3) year period, subject to the availability of work and other terms and conditions of this Agreement. The presumption of rehire during this period does not preclude, however, the possibility of termination for just cause, or any other conditions of non-reappointment as specified in this Agreement.
- 123 4. During each year of their appointment, Employees will receive teaching assignments during the eight (8) month base academic year (Fall and Winter semesters). Assignments beyond the base academic year (e.g. Summer term teaching assignments, Extended Program assignments, etc.) shall be at the sole discretion of the Employer. Such additional work assignments shall not be subject to dispute or right of review through the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement.
- 124 5. Full-time Employees whose principle responsibility is teaching or professional library service shall be appointed to the rank of Lecturer I, Lecturer II, or Lecturer III, as determined by their academic credentials. Thereafter, Employees shall be subject to evaluation and eligible for promotion in accordance with the provisions of Article XVIII.

- 125 6. Individuals who are initially appointed and commence work at Eastern Michigan University after October 15 of a Fall term shall be employed only for such period as is set forth in their appointment letters, which shall in no event exceed the following August 31. Individuals so appointed shall not be deemed Employees, and thus shall not be covered by the provisions of this Agreement until such time as they may be appointed to a one (1) year full-time (100%) term appointment from September 1 through August 31.

126 C. Conditions of Employment

- 127 Any terms and conditions in an Employee's letter of appointment beyond those provided by this Agreement shall be approved by the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs or his/her designee and a copy provided to the Union. Any extension(s) or modification(s) of any appointment(s) that include terms and conditions of employment beyond those provided by this Agreement, and/or any special understandings, shall also be stated in writing by the Provost or his/her designee, and a copy provided to the Employee and the Union. Such terms and conditions and/or special understandings shall be deemed to automatically carry forward to any subsequent term appointment(s) unless expressly excluded in said subsequent term appointment(s).

128 D. Modification of Assignments

- 129 The parties recognize and agree that there are numerous factors that make it difficult for the Employer to conclusively establish a full-time load for Employees in advance of the beginning of classes. By way of illustration, but not by way of limitation, low student enrollments may require the cancellation of a class or classes within a department, which may result in moving a full-time Employee to part-time employment; likewise, the early return from leave of a Faculty Member for whom an Employee was hired as a replacement could result in the loss of employment for the Employee.

- 130 Understanding that such possibilities exist, and at the same time attempting to provide early notification to Employees, the parties understand and agree that any Employee's assignment may be changed or cancelled, in whole or in part, by the Employer at any time. In those circumstances in which the Employer changes or cancels, in whole or in part, an Employee's assignment, the Employer agrees to inform Employees and the Union of said action and make reasonable adjustments in order to permit Employees to be retained over Part-Time Lecturers and other Employees, as provided in Article XII.E. below. If the Employee's assignment is changed or cancelled, in whole or in part, so that the Employee loses total access to health insurance benefits under this Agreement, the Employer will inform the Employee and the Union, in writing, of the reasons for the alteration or cancellation of the assignment.

131 E. Priority for Retention

132 If an Employee's assignment is reduced to not less than 60% of a full-time load, the Employer may, but shall not be required to, reassign other courses to the Employee as provided in paragraphs E.1. and E.2. below.

133 If an Employee's assignment is reduced to less than 60% of a full-time load, the Employer will make reasonable efforts to restore the Employee to at least a 60% assignment, utilizing the procedures set forth below.

134 1. Where practical (i.e., in the judgment of the Department Head it is appropriate),² the course(s) assigned to Part-Time Lecturers within the Employee's home department (excluding courses offered through Extended Programs) will be reassigned from the Part-Time Lecturer to the Employee, provided:

135 a. The Employee holds an equal or higher level academic degree than the academic degree held by the Part-Time Lecturer(s) from whom the course or courses are to be reassigned.

136 b. The Employee is qualified (as determined by the Department Head)³ to teach the course(s) that could be transferred to his/her load.

137 c. The Employee has taught the course(s) two or more times over the last five years.

138 d. The assignment and transfer of the course(s) can be completed prior to the first day of classes.

139 2. If the provisions of 1 above are insufficient to restore the Employee's assignment to at least 60% of a full-time load, the course(s) (excluding courses offered through Extended Programs) assigned to other Employees in the Employee's home department with fewer years of service to the Employer will, where practical (i.e., in the judgment of the Department Head it is appropriate),³ be reassigned to the Employee provided:

140 a. The Employee holds an equal or higher rank than the rank held by the Employee from whom the course(s) are to be reassigned.

141 b. The Employee is qualified (as determined by the Department Head) to teach the course(s) that could be transferred to his/her load.

² The Department Head's judgment shall not be subject to dispute or right of review under the Grievance and Arbitration provisions of the Agreement.

³ The Department Head's judgment shall not be subject to dispute or right of review under the Grievance and Arbitration provisions of the Agreement.

- 142 c. The Employee has taught the course(s) more times than the Employee from whom courses are to be reassigned.
- 143 d. The assignment and transfer of the course(s) can be completed prior to the first day of classes.
- 144 Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties expressly agree that the Employer may, at its discretion, waive any of the requirements of ad. set forth in paragraphs 1. and 2. above. The determination to waive or not waive any such conditions shall be vested solely in the Employer and shall not be subject to dispute or right of review under the provisions of the Grievance and Arbitration procedures of this Agreement.
- 145 Employees whose assignments are reduced below 60% and cannot be immediately restored will be placed on a restoration list in their respective home departments for the duration of their appointment or the expiration of this Agreement, or extensions thereof, whichever is sooner. Employees will be notified in writing of their placement on the restoration list. A copy of said notice will be concurrently served on the Union. While on the restoration list, such Employees will be offered assignments in their home department in years of service order (longest service first), provided:
- 146 • The assignment can be made prior to the beginning of classes.
- 147 • The person is qualified (as determined by the Department Head)³ to teach all courses constituting the load s/he would be assigned.
- 148 3. There will be no accumulation of credited service time for any purpose during periods an individual is inactive or otherwise outside the Bargaining Unit. When an individual is restored under the provisions provided herein, s/he will receive the same base compensation (adjusted for his/her workload) and benefits s/he enjoyed at the time s/he was placed on the restoration list.
- 149 4. The priority for retention provisions herein shall have no effect on the teaching loads of Graduate Teaching Assistants, Doctoral and Post Doctoral Fellows, Visiting Professors, Exchange Professors, Visiting Scholars, Faculty Members represented by the AAUP, individuals holding administrative or joint appointments or individuals whose appointments otherwise require teaching or other instructional related tasks, Department Heads, supervisors and all other individuals outside the bargaining unit (excluding Part-Time Lecturers), who shall have priority for retention over all members of the Bargaining Unit.

³ The Department Head's judgment shall not be subject to dispute or right of review under the Grievance and Arbitration provisions of the Agreement.

150 F. Course Schedules and Teaching Assignments

151 The Employer shall have sole discretion in the development of course schedules, on and off campus, in all academic terms (e.g., Fall and Winter semesters, Summer term, Short Term Workshops, etc.), and in all academic departments and Extended Programs. Decisions to offer or delete courses because of anticipated or actual enrollment changes, the reallocation of personnel, equipment, space and/or operating budgets, or shifting philosophies regarding the priority of one course of study over another are but a few of the reasons that the Employer, if it elects to revise its course offerings, may adversely affect the teaching schedules of Employees.

152 In addition, the Employer shall have sole discretion to determine the teaching assignment of each Employee including, but not limited to, the courses to be taught, and the day(s), time(s) and location(s) of such courses. In any event, such decisions by the Employer shall be recognized as decisions that fall within the Employer's right to manage and shall not be subject to dispute or right of review under the Grievance and Arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

153 G. Notice of Appointment and Reappointment

154 Upon initial hire, an Employee shall be provided with written notice of appointment. The notice of appointment will describe the specific work to be performed, the initial salary, the period of time for the work to be performed, specific responsibilities and duties, and will include by reference his or her rights under this collective bargaining agreement. The notice of appointment shall be signed by the Department Head or other authorized representative of the Employer. As soon as possible, the Employee will return a copy of this notice of appointment with his or her signature as an acceptance of the terms.

155 During the first two years of appointment, written notice of reappointment shall be provided to the Employee, with a copy to the Union, on or before April 1 for the following academic year. After the first two years of appointment, written notice of reappointment shall be provided to the Employee, with a copy to the Union, on or before December 10 for the following academic year, pursuant to Section B.3. above.

156 H. Graduate Teaching Assignments

157 Although Faculty normally teach graduate courses, Employees may be assigned to such courses in exceptional circumstances. Employees teaching graduate courses must meet the same criteria used for the selection and periodic review of Faculty who teach in graduate programs. The home department develops the criteria for graduate teaching assignments with the approval of the College Dean and Graduate Dean.

158 Employees will be reviewed based on the departmental criteria for teaching graduate courses.

- 159 No later than May 15 of each academic year, each College Dean will forward a list of full-time Employees who teach in graduate programs to the Graduate Dean and the Union.
- 160 I. Posting
- 161 Prior to hiring any new Employee, the hiring department shall, whenever practicable, use the Employer's web-based posting system to announce and invite applications for existing or potential vacancies.
- 162 The posting will list the minimum qualifications necessary for a candidate to be considered for the teaching position, and will include a general description of the responsibilities of the position(s).
- 163 Whenever practicable, postings will be open for at least ten (10) consecutive business days prior to an offer being made to a candidate. A single posting may result in an offer made to one or more candidates.
- 164 The Employer will provide a description of its posting website and posting practices to all employees on its Academic Human Resources website

ARTICLE XIII TERMINATION, NOTIFICATION OF POSITION
VACANCIES UPON NON-REAPPOINTMENT, LAYOFF AND RECALL

- 165 A. Termination
- 166 All Employees are employed at the will of the Employer. Any Employee may be terminated without cause in mid-appointment, in which case the Employer shall pay the Employee an amount equal to 135% of the unpaid wages for the remainder of his/her appointment.
- 167 Any Employee may, in the discretion of the Employer, be terminated for cause in mid-appointment, in which case the Employee's appointment shall be cancelled without payment to the Employee for lost wages or fringe benefits or other liability to the Employer. By way of illustration, but not by way of limitation, "cause" shall be: a) serious professional misconduct; b) the failure to perform the Employee's professional responsibilities as set forth in this Agreement and in a manner acceptable to the Employer (as determined by its Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs); c) the inability of an Employee, owing to medical reasons or otherwise, to complete his or her contractual responsibilities; d) threatening, or, without legal justification, intentionally causing injury to any person in the workplace; e) intentionally causing damage to property of the Employer or the property of any individual on Eastern Michigan University grounds or in Eastern Michigan University buildings; f) intentionally interrupting the normal daily teaching, research or administrative operation of the Employer or directly inciting others to engage in such actions; g) deliberately blocking the entrance or exit of any individual to or from Eastern Michigan University facilities or property for any reason not sanctioned by the Employer; h) engaging in any illegal activity reflecting negatively on the Employer; i) acts of discrimination, sexual harassment, or any other form of harassment in violation of state, federal, or local law.

168 B. Notification of Position Vacancies Upon Non-Reappointment

169 An Employee who has had two consecutive appointments and then is not given a reappointment for reasons of budgetary considerations, 170 programmatic change, or lack of work within a department, shall be placed on a list for notification of future position vacancies.

170 Such Employees will remain on the notification list for two years from the date of their being placed on the notification list or until such time that they are given a full-time appointment, whichever is shorter.

171 Whenever possible, all Employees on the notification list will be notified via U.S. mail and/or electronic mail and given an opportunity to apply for open full-time appointments. Normal departmental hiring procedures will be followed.

172 It is the responsibility of the Employee on the notification list to provide current contact information to the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs and current application materials.

173 C. Notification of Layoff and Recall

174 1. Written notice of full or partial layoff will be provided by the Employer, with copies to the Union, as soon as possible after the decision is made, and will include the reasons(s) for the reduction as well as language regarding benefits and recall privileges as indicated in this Article.

175 2. Employees shall receive layoff notice no later than April 30 for the subsequent academic year, where practicable.

176 3. It is the responsibility of the Employee on the layoff status list to provide current contact information and updated application materials to the academic unit. An Employee on layoff status will be directed to check the Employer's web-based posting system for appointment opportunities. Employees on layoff who want to be considered for existing or potential openings in other disciplines should file an application (s) on the Employer's Jobs website. An Employee will be notified of a recall offer via U.S. mail and electronic mail by the academic unit, with copies to the Union.

177 4. An Employee on layoff retains rights of recall for two years or until s/he has rejected offers of recall in two consecutive semesters, whichever is sooner. An Employee must provide written notice of rejection of an offer of recall to the academic unit in a timely manner as defined in the notice of potential recall. An Employee who rejects offers of recall will be given the same rights to notice and opportunities for recall while on layoff status that the Employee had prior to rejecting the offer of recall.

- 178 5. If an Employee does not reply to an offer of recall as described above, the academic unit is under no obligation to offer the Employee another recall opportunity.

179 D. Access to EMU Facilities While on Layoff

Employees placed on layoff status retain the same access to general EMU facilities as Employees not on layoff. For example, such Employees may visit and use museums, galleries, special collections, and libraries with regular faculty borrowing privileges. After meeting specific fee requirements, Employees may also continue to participate in campus parking, use recreational sport facilities, and obtain athletic tickets. Additionally, Employees on layoff will continue to have full use of the email system.

ARTICLE XIV. RESIGNATIONS

- 180 In the interest of providing the Employer with adequate time to secure replacements, Employees are expected to give the maximum possible notice of impending resignation. Notice of resignation shall be submitted in writing to the Department Head or supervisor at least sixty (60) days prior to any semester in which the Employee is scheduled to teach, if at all possible, or, in the alternative, at the earliest point that an Employee becomes aware of his/her unavailability to teach. Any resignation shall specify the date on which the resignation is to take effect.

ARTICLE XV. OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT

- 181 An Employee may accept outside supplemental employment as long as it does not interfere with the full and proper performance of his or her duties. Should the Department Head or Supervisor determine that the supplemental employment interferes with the Employee's duties, the Employee may be requested to modify such supplemental employment as a condition of the Employee's continued employment with Eastern Michigan University.

ARTICLE XVI. RESPONSIBILITIES AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

182 A. Employee Responsibilities

- 183 1. The primary professional responsibility of the Employee is teaching, professional library service or supervising student teachers. It is recognized that an Employee's professional responsibility entails a number of particular obligations which Employees are expected to fulfill, including, but not limited to, such obligations as developing and maintaining their professional skills (i.e. professional development) in order to ensure a high quality education for their students, meeting assigned classes, assigning and submitting grades in accordance with established Eastern Michigan University schedules, providing enrollment data and such other information as corrected class lists, etc., as may be required by the Employer. Further, Employees shall have the professional responsibility of keeping posted office hours which are scheduled at times most beneficial to students and reporting all absences from regularly scheduled duties to their Department Head (e.g. arriving late or missing scheduled teaching assignments, etc.).

- 184 2. Syllabi will be prepared in accordance with Eastern Michigan University requirements. Preceding the commencement of a class, Employees are required to provide the Department Head with a copy of the syllabus to be used in each course they are scheduled to teach and, thereafter, any subsequent updates of syllabi. Employees will be required to provide other course materials (e.g., course packs, examples of student work, student portfolios, grade books, tests, test results, classroom handouts, etc.) to the Department Head when requested.
- 185 3. All Employees are encouraged to be active members of the Eastern Michigan University community and participate in service-related activities to the extent that they are permissible under the Departmental Input Document applicable to Faculty in the department(s) to which an Employee is assigned, and Eastern Michigan University policy.

186 Office Hours

Employees shall post and hold five (5) scheduled office hours per week for student consultation. Office hours must be scheduled at times most beneficial to students and must be approved by the Department Head. Additionally, Employees must make themselves available (electronically or by appointment) to students five (5) hours per week outside normal office hours for consultation.

187 Online and Hybrid Instruction

Employees who develop online materials for classes retain all rights of ownership of the materials so developed. The Employee certifies that all appropriate copyrights were observed. At the Employee's option, s/he may sign over the online class materials to the Employer. Employees will receive no stipends to develop courses or grading stipends to teach more students than allowed by the course cap.

188 B. Employer Responsibilities

- 189 1. To facilitate the completion of these professional responsibilities, the Employer will provide without cost to all Employees a designated workspace with computer and phone, and full participation in the Computer Refresh Program on the same basis as tenured and tenured track faculty, departmental mailbox, library privileges, e-mail account, parking permits, the use of printing, scanning, and copy machines for instructional materials used for EMU courses, any office supplies provided to other instructional staff, and opportunities for professional development.

190 2. Each Employee will be provided the Employer's IT services on the same basis on which they are provided to other instructional faculty.

191 3. Employees will be provided with the clerical assistance consistent with normal practices of their department.

192 4. Notification to Employees

193 When written notice to an Employee is required by this Agreement, such notice shall be: (1) handed to the Employee personally; or (2) left at the Employee's office with the Department Head or departmental secretary; or (3) left at his/her last known residence with some person of suitable age and discretion residing therein; or (4) mailed to the Employee by regular First Class Mail; or (5) via the Employer's electronic mail system. (Notification by mail shall be deemed to have occurred as of the date posted at a bona fide off-campus United States Postal Service Office and addressed to the Employee's last known residence.)

194 C. Professional Development

195 1. The Employer and the Union recognize the value of substantive professional development activities that may be undertaken by Employees to enhance their delivery of classroom instruction and/or expand their professional knowledge base. Such activities may include, but are not limited to, advanced course work and continuing education in the Employee's discipline or related area of specialization.

196 2. Any professional development opportunities that are provided by EMU, its colleges, departments, sections, or programs, such as workshops, institutes, training sessions, or other professional development opportunities shall be made available to Employees on the same basis as they are available to tenured and tenure-track faculty, where appropriate and relevant to the members of the unit, including equal access, notification, invitation to attend, and equal distribution of honoraria and stipends.

197 D. Distinguished Teaching Award

It is hereby agreed by and between the Employer and Union that the Employer shall adopt a Distinguished Teaching Awards program for Employees.

ARTICLE XVII

WORKLOAD

- 198 It is recognized that a full-time teaching or library position is a full-time job. While it is not possible or desirable to establish the same load or credit hour production for each Employee, a fifteen (15) credit hour load is the full-time (100%) norm⁴ for the Fall and Winter semesters.⁵
- 199 The full-time (100%) norm for Employees in the Library shall be thirty-seven and one-half (37 ½) scheduled hours per week.
- 200 All Employees shall be assigned a home department by the Employer, which normally shall be the department in which the Employee teaches all or a majority of his/her classes. Only work performed in the home department shall count toward load, except as provided below.
- 201 Courses identified as part of an Employee's teaching load may include classes offered at various locations (on-campus as well as off-campus) and various times (weekdays as well as weekends), except those classes identified as non-traditional (defined below). Non-credit courses, workshops, and courses taught for specialized groups and not available to the entire student body shall not be scheduled as part of an Employee's teaching load.
- 202 Current employees who teach non-traditional classes as part of load may continue this practice. Current employees who have not taught non-traditional classes as part of load previously and new hires cannot be assigned non-traditional classes as part of load.
- 203 The Employer and the Union are committed to providing quality educational opportunities to our diverse student population, recognizing that in certain cases, delivering programs and classes in non-traditional ways may be necessary. Some examples include classes taught in a ⁴ It is agreed that the fifteen (15) credit hour load may be adjusted in accordance with any accreditation standards adopted by the Employer. The parties further agree that it is anticipated that owing to the credit hours assigned some courses, Employees' schedules may require assigning them a load greater than fifteen (15) credit hours in one semester and offsetting that assignment with a commensurately lower teaching load in the other semester. Pro-rata adjustments shall be made in an Employee's base compensation to reflect the variances both above and below the standard fifteen (15) hour load. (Independent studies and related courses shall not be eligible for overload compensation.) It is further understood that such balancing of loads must occur within a single academic year (i.e. Fall and Winter semester).

compressed format (classes less than three [3] weeks), classes taught during inter-sessions or University breaks, and classes taught overseas (study abroad).

- 204 When assigning non-traditional classes, the Faculty in each department/program will be given the first opportunity to teach non-traditional courses. If there is not a qualified Faculty volunteer, the Full-Time Lecturers in the department/program will be given the next opportunity to volunteer to teach non-traditional courses.
- 205 Typically, Employees will teach these non-traditional classes as a supplement to their regular pay.
- 206 In some instances, an Employee's load may be comprised of classes in his/her home department and classes in a different department and/or Extended Programs. In such cases, said load shall require the advance written approval of the heads of all affected units and the Office of the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs. If such advance written notice is not obtained, the additional assignments shall not count toward the Employee's load.
- 207 Employees shall not be required to be on campus during official University holidays, the Thanksgiving Recess, Winter Recess, Spring Recess, and Christmas and New Year's season days.
- 208 A. Equivalency Credit
- 209 When schedules are assigned, the Employer shall determine the factors, if any, for which equivalency credit towards meeting the fifteen (15) credit hour norm in the Fall and Winter terms may be given. Such determinations by the Employer shall be recognized as decisions that fall within the Employer's right to manage and shall not be subject to dispute or right of review through the Grievance and Arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XVIII INPUT AND COMMUNICATIONS

- 210 A. Input
- 211 Each academic department, including the University Library, has a Departmental Input Document providing for input of Faculty. To the extent that those department Faculty procedures permit (or are subsequently amended to permit), Employee participation on curriculum and instruction committees will be allowed.
- 212 To the extent that Employee access to full Faculty meetings is provided by currently agreed upon (or subsequently amended), Faculty input procedures, Employees shall be permitted to attend such meetings and provide recommendations on curricular matters.
- 213 Further, if the department Faculty procedures do not permit Employee participation, Employees will be given an opportunity to confer periodically with the Department Head on curriculum and instruction issues.

214 B. Communications

215 Employees shall have full access to all communications and documents including announcements, agendas, minutes, and other department items of business pertinent to their assignments.

216 Employees shall be given the opportunity to confer periodically with their Department Head on qualifications, curriculum, instruction, and workload issues.

217 In the first month of fall and winter semesters, each department/school will hold a meeting for Employees to explain ongoing EMU, College or Division, Department/School and Program practices (policies, rules, and regulations), to discuss curriculum, instruction, and workload issues, and to solicit advice and recommendations from Employees regarding departmental matters. The Union and Employees shall be notified in writing at least two weeks in advance of the meeting. Each academic unit will make fifteen (15) minutes available to the Union during the meeting.

218 Prior to scheduling courses for each semester, each Employee will have the opportunity to provide information in writing regarding preferred teaching assignments, willingness to teach overload courses, and preferred days, times, and locations of classes. For Employees who are assigned off-campus student teaching or clinical supervision, Employees may request placement in a particular geographic area. Final decisions regarding any of the above items rest solely with the Employer.

ARTICLE XIX. EVALUATION AND PROMOTION

219 A. All Employees shall be subject to evaluation by the Employer. The evaluation of Employee performance includes student evaluations, classroom observations, an assessment of an Employee's professional development, as well as other appropriate items as indicated in this article.

220 Employees who are scheduled for evaluation in an upcoming academic year shall be notified in writing by April 1st of the academic year preceding the evaluation. A list of Employees scheduled for evaluation shall be provided simultaneously to the Union.

221 A Department Head may, in consultation with the College Dean, require a previously unscheduled evaluation of an Employee, should evidence of serious performance problems arise. In all such cases, such notification of an unscheduled evaluation must be provided to the Employee, concurrently with written notification to the Union, within thirty (30) calendar days of when the Department Head first becomes aware of the problem. Such evaluations will follow the Periodic Evaluation and remediation procedures described below.

- 222 Student Evaluations and Classroom Observations do not apply to supervisors of student teachers and Employees assigned to the Library. In the case of Library Employees, professional performance shall be the equivalent of instructional effectiveness.
- 223 All Employees shall have the responsibility to engage in pursuits that enable them to expand their knowledge base and remain current in their respective disciplines. Such activities include, but are not limited to, advanced course work taken in pursuit of a higher academic degree in the Employee's discipline or area of specialization. Participation in any such activity, however, is not considered evidence of professional development; rather, it is how the Employee applies the knowledge gained to his/her classroom instruction or professional performance that shall be assessed by the department.
- 224 For evaluation and for the purposes of determining an Employee's eligibility for promotion, only work completed since the last evaluation, or the date of the Employee's first term appointment, whichever is later, shall be evaluated. This limitation shall not apply to graduate level coursework that an Employee may have accumulated over a longer period of time in order to meet academic criteria minima.
- 225 Evaluations conducted under this agreement can have the following outcomes:
- 226 Exceeds expectations
Meets expectations
Does not meet expectations
- 227 B. Types of Evaluations
- 228 There are three (3) types of evaluations:
- 229 1. Initial Evaluations
- 230 Initial Evaluations are conducted in the first year of an Employee's initial appointment period. Initial Evaluations include the following:
- 231 Student evaluations, where available. Student Evaluations shall be conducted in accordance with Eastern Michigan University policy and shall include the two core items on all classroom evaluations and no less than an additional six (6) questions appropriate to the course format, which are applicable to the department in which an Employee teaches. Student evaluations are conducted in each Fall and Winter academic term. Employees shall be responsible for retaining all original copies of approved student evaluation forms for the period of time that they are applicable to future evaluations of the Employee.
- 232 Classroom Observations. Classroom observations shall be - conducted during the initial evaluation of instruction. Classroom observations shall be conducted by the Department Head (or his/her designee), and shall be scheduled with reasonable advance notice. Results of classroom observations shall be provided to the Employee in written format within ten (10) working days of the observation, with copies to the Employee's personnel file.

- 233 Course Materials. Examples of course syllabi, assignments, exams, or other supportive material that further informs the Employee's teaching effectiveness or approach to teaching.
- 234 Employees must submit their evaluation materials as a package (including student evaluations, classroom observations, course materials, etc.) to their Department Head no later than February 1st.
- 235 2. Periodic Evaluations
- 236 Periodic evaluations are conducted in the second year and in every fourth year following the original appointment year or the last promotion, and shall include the following:
- 237 Annual Activity Reports. By no later than October 15th of each academic year every Full-time Lecturer shall complete and submit an Annual Activity Report to his/her Department Head. The Annual Activity Report shall include a summary list of courses taught in the previous year and a summary list of professional development or other activities related to job performance that the Employee engaged in during the previous year. Employees shall have an opportunity to indicate interest in developing, revising, or teaching additional courses or other relevant job activities on the Annual Activity Report. The information contained in the Annual Activity Report shall provide the basic data for all subsequent evaluations. All Annual Activity Reports for the period under review shall be considered for the periodic evaluation.
- 238 Student Evaluations. Student Evaluations shall be conducted in accordance with Eastern Michigan University policy and shall include the two core items on all classroom evaluations and no less than an additional six (6) questions appropriate to the course format, which are applicable to the department in which an Employee teaches. Student evaluations are conducted in each Fall and Winter academic term.
- 239 Classroom Observations. Classroom observations shall be conducted during any periodic evaluation of instruction. Classroom observations shall be conducted by the Department Head (or his/her designee), and shall be scheduled with reasonable advance notice. Results of classroom observations shall be provided to the Employee in written format within ten (10) working days of the observation.
- 240 Course Materials. Examples of course syllabi, assignments, exams, or other supportive material that further informs the Employee's teaching effectiveness or approach to teaching.

241 Employees must submit their evaluation materials as a package (including student evaluations, classroom observations, course materials, etc., to their Department Head no later than February 1st.

242 3. Promotion Evaluations

243 Employees are eligible to apply for promotion as indicated in Section E below, and must notify their Department Head by October 15th of the year in which they intend to apply. Evaluations for promotion shall include the following at a minimum:

244 Annual Activity Report. By no later than October 15th of each academic year every Full-time Lecturer shall complete and submit an Annual Activity Report to his/her Department Head. All Annual Activity Reports for the period under review shall be considered for the promotion evaluation.

245 Student Evaluations. Student Evaluations shall be conducted in accordance with Eastern Michigan University policy and shall include the two core items on all classroom evaluations and no less than an additional six (6) questions appropriate to the course format, which are applicable to the department in which an Employee teaches. Student evaluations are conducted in each Fall and Winter academic term.

246 Classroom Observations. Classroom observations shall be conducted during any periodic evaluation of instruction. Classroom observations shall be conducted by the Department Head (or his/her designee), and shall be scheduled with reasonable advance notice. Results of classroom observations shall be provided to the Employee in written format within ten (10) working days of the observation.

247 Course Materials. Examples of course syllabi, assignments, exams, or other supportive material that further informs the Employee's teaching effectiveness or approach to teaching.

248 Self-Evaluation. Each Employee shall prepare a narrative statement (approximately 3-5 pages) covering the period under review. A self-evaluation shall include, but not be limited to, the following items:

- 249 a. The Employee's teaching philosophy
- 250 b. A reflection on teaching experience or teaching effectiveness at EMU
- 251 c. Curricular or pedagogical innovations the Employee has developed

- 252 d. Discussion of professional development related to teaching responsibilities
- 253 e. Other material relevant to the Employee's job performance.

254 Extraordinary Achievement. If s/he so chooses, the Employee may include discussion or evidence of service or professional development beyond that which is directly related to the Employee's teaching assignment. Such discussion or evidence shall be taken into account by the Department Head, but shall not result in an overall negative review.

255 Employees must submit their promotion materials as a package (including student evaluations, classroom observations, course materials, self-evaluations, etc.) to their Department Head no later than February 1st of the year in which they apply.

256 Promotion evaluations completed outside the normal schedule for Initial and Periodic evaluations shall have the effect of resetting the schedule for the next Periodic evaluation. For example, an Employee who applies for promotion in year six (6) of employment would next undergo evaluation in year ten (10).

257 For purposes of determining an Employee's eligibility for promotion, only work completed since the last evaluation, or the date of the Employee's first term appointment, whichever is later, shall be evaluated, except as described below. This limitation shall not apply to graduate-level course work that an Employee might have accumulated over a longer period of time in order to meet academic criteria minima.

258 C. Department Head Responsibilities

259 The Department Head will reduce his/her evaluation of an Employee to writing, explaining with reasonable specificity, the evaluation efforts that were conducted, their individual results, and the qualitative basis for the overall rating assigned the Employee. Written results of such evaluations shall be returned to the Employee no later than April 1st (or next working day, if April 1 falls on a weekend or holiday). The Employee shall have up to ten (10) working days to submit a written response. Both the evaluation results and the Employee's response (if any) shall be placed in the Employee's personnel file.

260 The Department Head's overall evaluation and recommendation for promotion and the Employee's materials in support of the Employee's performance shall be forwarded to the Office of the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs, with a copy to the Dean of the appropriate college, for inclusion in the official personnel file. The Department Head will place copies of all materials pertaining to the evaluation of an Employee in the Employee's departmental personnel file, including, but not limited to statements/materials submitted by the Employee, and the results of student, and Faculty and/or Department Head evaluations of teaching or professional performance, 261 Employees shall be responsible for retaining all original copies of approved student evaluation forms and Faculty and administrative classroom observations for the period of time that they are applicable to future evaluations of the Employee.

262 D. Remediation

- 263 1. If, in any Periodic evaluation, the Employee does not meet expectations for performance, the Department/Section Head and the Employee, with Union Representation, shall develop a remediation plan. The remediation plan shall include specific outcomes and a timeline for improvement.
- 264 2. Following the period specified in the remediation plan, the Employer will place documentation of the Employee's success in meeting the goals in the Employee's personnel file. Successful completion of the remediation plan shall create a presumption of rehire for the next appointment cycle, as defined in Article XII (Appointments and Reappointments). If the Employee does not successfully complete the remediation plan, the Employee may not be reappointed for subsequent appointment cycles.
- 265 3. If an Employee does not meet expectations for performance in her/his Initial evaluation or the Periodic evaluation that takes place in her/his second year of employment, s/he shall be appointed to an additional one-year appointment (rather than being appointed to a three-year appointment), during which time the Employee must successfully complete a remediation plan to be eligible for rehire.
- 266 4. Successful completion of a remediation plan shall not alter the Employee's normal cycle of Periodic Evaluation.

267 E. Promotion

268 There are three (3) ranks to which Employees may be appointed or advanced: Lecturer I, Lecturer II, and Lecturer III. The minimum requirements advancement to each Lecturer rank are set forth below.

- 270 2. Promotion Without Credentials

271 Lecturer I: During the fourth (4th) year, the Employee appointed as Lecturer I may apply for promotion to Lecturer II. If the Employee receives a rating of ‘exceeds expectations’ in student evaluation ratings, classroom visitation ratings, and provides evidence of ‘exceeding expectations’ regarding application of his/her professional development to enhance his/her classroom instruction, the Employer may waive the academic requirements for promotion from Lecturer I to Lecturer II, and from Lecturer II to Lecturer III, subject to the recommendation of the Department Head, notification of the Dean, and approval of the Provost’s Office. Such waivers shall not unreasonably be denied.

272 Lecturer II: During the fourth (4th) year, the Employee appointed as Lecturer II may apply for promotion to Lecturer III. If the Employee receives rating of ‘exceeds expectations’ in student evaluation ratings, classroom visitation ratings, and provides evidence of ‘exceeding expectations’ regarding application of his/her professional development to enhance his/her classroom instruction, the Employer may waive the academic requirements for promotion from Lecturer I to Lecturer II, and from Lecturer II to Lecturer III, subject to the recommendation of the Department Head, notification of the Dean, and approval of the Provost’s Office. Such waivers shall not unreasonably be denied.

273 If the Employee receives an overall rating of Meets Expectations, but does not possess the required academic credentials necessary for promotion, s/he shall not be promoted above their current rank, but shall thereafter be eligible for consideration for three-year term appointments.

EMUFT shall be made aware of any increases to salaries made pursuant to this action.

322 Any request for a supplemental salary adjustment, whether from the Employee or the Employer shall be accompanied with supportive evidence justifying the adjustment. Justifying evidence may include and is comparisons with colleagues with similar responsibilities, job performance, additional duties and responsibilities, exceptional professional service and development, and exceptional professional achievement.

323 Supporting evidence shall be reviewed by the Employee's Department Head, who shall transmit the request and supporting evidence to the Dean

ARTICLE XXI.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

330 A. Paid Sick Leave Days

331 1. Paid Sick Leave Days

332 Each Employee on a full-time (100%) academic year appointment will be granted six (6) paid sick leave days per calendar year (i.e. January 1 – December 31). In recognition of their differential assignment, each Library Employee will be granted one additional paid sick leave day if they are assigned to work half time in the full Summer term, or full-time in either or both the Summer II or Summer III terms. For purposes of clarification, no more than one (1) additional paid sick leave day will be granted an Employee, irrespective of whether the Employee is assigned full- Summer work, or one-half (1/2) time Summer II and one-half (1/2) time Summer III work. Further, no pro-rata assignment paid sick leave days will be provided Employees who work one-half (1/2) time in only one (1) Summer term. Paid sick leave days will be credited to each Employee on a prorated basis at the time of initial appointment and on January 1 thereafter.

333 Employees on less than a full-time academic year appointment will receive prorated paid sick leave days according to the percentage and the duration of their appointment.

334 Unused paid sick leave days will accumulate from year to year, but in any event will not exceed a total of twenty-five (25) paid sick leave days. Any accumulated paid sick leave days cannot be paid out as a cash option upon the Employee's separation from the University.

335 2. Use of Paid Sick Leave Days

336 a. Paid sick leave may be used on any day on which an Employee is scheduled to work.

337 b. All absences due to illness or injury will be debited against the Employee's paid sick leave credit, regardless of whether or not a substitute is provided. An Employee will be considered absent if the Employee fails to appear for his/her regularly scheduled duties because of illness or injury, and the Employee's paid sick leave credit will be debited.

338 c. If an Employee is disabled and absent from work because of a compensable accident or injury (i.e. one covered by Workers' Compensation), the Employee may elect to utilize the Employee's paid sick leave entitlements to cover the monetary difference between the Employee's full-time salary as of the date of accident or injury, and compensation benefits applicable to the period of disability. The number of hours debited against the Employee's paid sick leave entitlements shall be limited to that number necessary to cover the above difference, or that amount to which the Employee is then entitled, whichever is lesser.

- 339 d. For any absence which is chargeable to paid sick leave benefits, the Employee may be required to file either a physician's statement or a sworn affidavit that the claim of absence for any of the reasons stated above is bona fide. Until such statement is filed, if requested, all absence will be considered as lost time and the Employee's pay will be reduced as provided for in H. below.
- 340 e. Paid sick leave days as provided in Sections A.1. and A.2. above may be utilized by an Employee for illness or injury of a member of the Employee's immediate family, subject to the following limitations:
- 341 (1) Such use shall be limited to three (3) days for any particular incident of illness or injury to a maximum of six (6) days in any calendar year.
- 342 (2) "Immediate family" for the purpose of this provision shall be defined as: spouse, biological parent or an individual who stood in loco parentis to an Employee when the Employee was a child, or a biological, adopted or foster child, a stepchild, a legal ward, or a child of an Employee standing in loco parentis, who is either under age 18, or age 18 or older and incapable of self-care because of mental or physical disability. Persons who are "in loco parentis" include those with day-to-day responsibilities to care for and financially support a person when the person was a child.
- 343 (3) Where practical, requests for the above shall be made in advance to the Department Head.
- 344 f. Disabilities resulting from pregnancy or childbirth shall be treated the same as other disabilities for purposes of these provisions.
- 345 g. The Employer will make available to each Employee on a monthly basis, a record of the Employee's accumulated paid sick leave. This information is available in departmental offices.
- 346 h. Paid sick leave days shall be debited in one (1) day increments, except in such cases where the Employee was able to attend his/her scheduled classes, professional committee meetings and/or perform other professional assignments such that the Department Head determines the professional services rendered by the Employee to be equivalent to one-half (1/2) day's work and so approves the debiting of the Employee's paid sick leave on that basis.

347 B. Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) of 1993, as Amended

- 348 1. An Employee who has been employed by EMU for at least twelve
(12) months and has worked at least 1,250 hours during the twelve
(12) month period immediately preceding the Employee's request for leave under the FMLA, or the date on which the leave commences, whichever comes first, will be granted up to twelve
(12) workweeks of unpaid FMLA leave during any calendar year (January 1 through December 31) for any one or more of the following events:
- 349 a. For a birth of a child of the Employee and to care for such child.
- 350 b. For the placement of a child with the Employee for adoption or foster care.
- 351 c. To care for a spouse, child, or parent of the Employee if the former has a serious health condition, or
- 352 d. Because of a serious health condition of the Employee which renders the Employee unable to perform the functions of his/her position.
- 353 2. The taking of a FMLA leave will not result in the loss of any employment benefits accrued prior to the date on which the leave commenced; provided, however, that nothing in this sentence shall be construed to entitle any Employee who returns from leave to the accrual of any employment benefits during the period of the leave or to any right, benefit, or position other than that to which the Employee would have been entitled had the Employee not taken the leave.
- 354 3. Employees who take an FMLA leave for the intended purpose of the leave will be entitled, on return from leave, to be restored by the Employer to the position of employment held by the Employee when the leave commenced or an equivalent position with equivalent employment benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment.
- 355 4. During the period of FMLA leave, the Employer shall maintain coverage under any group health or dental plan as defined by the FMLA for the duration of such leave and at the level and under the conditions coverage would have been provided if the Employee had continued in employment for the duration of the leave. The Employer shall have the right to recover the premiums paid for maintaining coverage for the Employee under such group health plan during the period of a FMLA leave if the Employee fails to return to work for reasons other than the continuation, recovering, or onset of a serious health condition entitling the Employee to leave under paragraphs B.1.c. or B.1.d. above, or other circumstances beyond the Employee's control. In this situation, the Employer may require certification of inability to return to work as specified and allowed by the FMLA.

- 356 5. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph B.1. above, an unpaid family leave of up to twelve (12) workweeks for the birth/care of a child or for the placement of a child in an Employee's home for adoption or foster care may be taken at any time within the twelve (12) month period which starts on the day of such birth or placement for adoption or foster care. However, regardless of when the leave commences, it will expire no later than the end of the twelve (12) month period. (For example, an Employee who requests a leave at the start of the twelfth month [of the twelve (12) month period from the date of birth or placement] is entitled to only four (4) workweeks of unpaid leave.)
- 357 6. Spouses, both of whom are employed by the Employer, are limited to a combined total of twelve (12) workweeks of unpaid FMLA leave during any twelve (12) month period for the birth/care of their child, placement of a child in their home for adoption or foster care, or for the care of a parent with a serious health condition. However, each Employee may use up to twelve (12) workweeks of unpaid leave during any twelve (12) month period to care for the Employee's child or spouse who is suffering from a serious health condition.
- 358 7. An eligible Employee who foresees that s/he will require a leave for the birth/care of a child or for the placement of a child in the Employee's home for adoption or foster care, must notify the Department Head, in writing, not less than thirty (30) calendar days in advance of the start date of the leave. If not foreseeable, the Employee must provide as much written notice as is practicable under the circumstances.
- 359 8. An eligible Employee who foresees the need for a leave of absence due to planned medical treatment for his/her spouse, child or parent should notify the Department Head, in writing, as early as possible so that the absence can be scheduled at a time least disruptive to Employer operations. Such an Employee must also give at least thirty (30) calendar days written notice, unless it is impractical to do so, in which case the Employee must provide as much written notice as circumstances permit.
- 360 9. An Employee on an approved FMLA leave should keep the Department Head informed regarding his/her status and intent to return to work upon conclusion of the leave.
- 361 10. If a requested leave is because of a serious health condition of the Employee which renders the Employee unable to perform the functions of his/her position, or to care for a spouse, child or parent who has a serious health condition, the Employee may be required to file with the Employer, in a timely manner, a health care provider's certification or such recertifications as may reasonably be required by the Employer. Similarly, as a condition of restoring an Employee whose FMLA leave was occasioned by the Employee's own serious health condition, the Employer may also require the Employee to obtain and present certification from his/her health care provider that the Employee is able to resume work. All required certifications or recertifications shall conform to the FMLA's certification requirements.

362 11. In any case in which the Employer has reason to doubt the validity of the health care provider's statement or certification for leaves taken under paragraphs B.1.c. and B.1.d., the Employer may, at its expense, require second and third opinions as specified by the FMLA to resolve the issue.

363 12. A leave taken under paragraph B.1.a. or B.1.b. above shall not be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule unless the Employer and the Employee agree otherwise. Subject to the limitations and certifications allowed by the FMLA, a leave taken under paragraph B.1.c. above may be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary; provided, however, that where such leave is foreseeable based upon planned medical treatment, the Employer may require the Employee to transfer temporarily to an available alternative position offered by the Employer for which the Employee is qualified and that has equivalent pay and benefits and better accommodates recurring periods of leave than the Employee's regular position.

364 13. The provisions of paragraphs B.1-B.12 above are intended to comply with the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, as amended, and any terms used herein will be as defined in the Act. To the extent that these or any other provisions of this Collective Bargaining Agreement are in violation of the Act, the language of the Act prevails. The FMLA provisions do not impair any rights granted under other provisions of this Agreement.

365 C. Unpaid Medical Leave

366 1. Upon proper application, an Employee who has exhausted his/her entitlement to the benefits provided for in Section A. above will, if eligible, be placed on Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) leave, pursuant to the provisions of Section B. above.

367 2. An Employee who is unable to work because of illness or injury and is ineligible for, or has exhausted, his/her FMLA leave entitlements as provided in Section B. above, shall, upon proper application, be placed on unpaid medical leave for a period of up to one (1) semester. An Employee may also request an extension of medical leave. If approved by the Employer, said extended medical leave shall be without pay for a period of up to one (1) semester. Said leaves may be further extended at the Employer's discretion for additional periods of up to one (1) semester, but the total period of the leave time, including any FMLA leave, shall not exceed two (2) full years.

- 368 3. The Employer may require the Employee to submit a statement from his/her physician in support of any request for medical leave, and of any such leave extension or request by the Employee to return to work.

369 D. Bereavement Leave

370 An Employee will be allowed up to three (3) consecutive calendar days without loss of pay or benefits, to attend the funeral of a member of the Employee's immediate family. "Immediate family" for purposes of this brother, mother-in-law, father-in-law, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, step child, legal ward, foster child, grandparent, and an individual who stood in loco parentis to an Employee when the Employee was a child. Persons who are "in loco parentis" include those with day-to-day responsibilities to care for and financially support a person, when the person was a child. For any individual not listed above, three (3) days of bereavement leave may be requested. Such requests shall not be unreasonably denied.

371 In those limited instances where extenuating circumstances associated with the death of a member of the Employee's immediate family (e.g., the geographic location of the funeral and/or legal obligations that must be assumed by an Employee) necessitate an extended leave of absence on the part of the Employee, the Employee may request approval of up to two
(2) additional days of Bereavement Leave, which requests will not be unreasonably denied by the Employer.

372 An Employee who wishes to attend the funeral of someone outside of his/her immediate family may take one-half (1/2) day with pay, with the permission of the Department Head.

373 E. Jury Duty

374 Employees will suffer no loss in compensation when called to perform jury duty service. The Employer will pay the difference between jury compensation and the Employee's regular Employer compensation.
When an Employee is temporarily excused from jury duty service, s/he is expected to return to work.

375 F. Military Leave

- 376 1. A military leave without pay shall be granted upon request of any Employee who enters active military service of the United States, or civilian services of the United States which are an essential part of the national defense program. Upon conclusion of the leave the Employee shall be subject to reinstatement in accordance with the provisions of applicable federal or state law.

- 377 2. An Employee who is ordered to active duty during an academic period in which the Employee is scheduled to work shall, at his/her request, be granted military leave to engage in a temporary tour of duty with the National Guard or any recognized branch of the United States Military Service. If the Employee's military pay is less than his/her regular Employer salary, the Employer will pay the Employee the difference for a maximum of fifteen (15) working days in any tour of duty or calendar year, whichever is the longer period. Such leave shall be credited as continuing service.

378 Military Family Leave Provision

Eligible Employees with a spouse, son, daughter, or parent on active duty or call to active duty status in the National Guard or Reserves in support of a contingency operation may use their twelve (12) week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

- 379 FMLA also includes a special entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered service member during a single twelve (12) month period. A covered service member is a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who has a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of duty on active duty that may render the service member medically unfit to perform his or her duties for which the service member is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy; or is in outpatient status; or is on the temporary disability retired list.

380 3. Time Limits for Military Leave

Where practicable, applications for Military Leaves under paragraph F.1. above, or extensions thereof shall be submitted at least ninety (90) calendars days before the beginning of the semester the leave, or extension thereof, is desired to commence.

381 G. Personal Business Leave

- 382 1. Each Employee shall be granted up to two (2) days each calendar year for the purpose of attending to personal business that cannot be attended to at a time not in conflict with his/her professional responsibilities.
- 383 2. Personal business days shall be credited to each Employee at the time of his/her initial appointment and on each January 1st thereafter. Such days shall be non-accumulative and shall be separate from and in addition to the paid sick leave days provided for in Section A.

- 384 3. Personal business leaves shall be approved in one-half (1/2) day increments, except in cases where the Employee completes his/her personal business in less than one-half (1/2) day and is able to attend scheduled classes, professional committee meetings and/or perform other professional assignments for one-quarter (1/4) day. In these instances, the Employee's personal business leave account will be debited in one-quarter (1/4) day increments, as approved by the Department Head.

385 H. Leave Conditions

386 1. Approval of Leaves

387 To the extent permitted by applicable state and federal law, all leaves require advance administrative approval, which approval will be given in all instances where the terms and conditions of this Agreement have been satisfied. Where practicable, the Employee shall provide his/her Department Head with as much advance notice as possible of the need to utilize said leave. Said notice shall be framed with sufficient particularity to advise the Department Head of the reason for the absence and to establish its compensable nature under the terms of this Agreement. If advance notice is not practicable, the Employee shall provide as much notice as circumstances permit. The Department Head may require said notice to be in writing. If an Employee's absence is determined to be not compensable under the terms of this provision, it shall be regarded as lost time and the Employee's pay reduced.

388 2. Time Limits

Spouses without access to employer subsidized coverage may remain on the University's plan as primary coverage, provided proper application pursuant to section C.4.a. (mp 413) of this article.

- 409 EMU shall provide the Union with a copy of certificates and riders for all plans ten (10) working days prior to the open enrollment period.
- 410 1. Employees who obtain age sixty-five (65) are eligible for Medicare benefits. With the passage of the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act (TEFRA), the Employer provided health insurance plan becomes the primary health insurance carrier. Medicare becomes the secondary health carrier for active Employees who are age sixty-five (65) or over.
- 411 2. Additions and changes to an Employee health care coverage must be made within thirty (30) calendar days of the event (marriage, divorce, birth, adoption) by contacting the Benefits Office and completing the appropriate change form. Failure to make these changes as herein provided will result in any additions and/or changes being excluded from such benefits plan until such time as the Employee enrolls and makes proper application during an open enrollment period.
- 412 3. To qualify for the medical benefits as above described, each Employee must individually enroll and make proper application for such benefits at the Benefits Office, within thirty (30) calendar days of the commencement of his/her regular employment with the Employer. An Employee who fails to enroll and make proper application as herein provided is specifically and expressly excluded from such benefits plan until such time as s/he enrolls and makes proper application during the annual open enrollment period.
- 413 4. a. Provided proper application, enrollment and, where applicable, all required payroll contributions are made by an Employee, the Employer agrees to continue this coverage and pay its share of the cost for maintaining the medical benefits plans described in this Section C., for the Employee, eligible spouse and his/her eligible dependent children under twenty-six (26) years of age, subject to the terms and conditions applicable to each of the respective plans.
- 414 b. In the event that either federal or state health care reform legislation cause a substantial increase in the cost to the Employer of providing the medical benefits described in this Section C., the parties agree to meet promptly and to negotiate in good faith measures for containing and reducing that cost.
- 415 5. Group medical benefits for an Employee who is off the payroll and absent because of an unpaid medical leave due to injury or illness shall be continued by EMU for as long as the employee is on unpaid medical leave, not to exceed twelve (12) months in duration, and for as long as the Employee continues to pay the Employee's share of the premium when due. Group medical benefits shall be terminated if the Employee's share of the premium is more than thirty (30) days late, provided EMU has given the employee at least fifteen (15) days advance notice advising that the coverage will terminate for non-payment.

- 416 a. The Employee may request to continue group medical benefits at his/her own expense for an additional twelve (12) months during an unpaid leave at the full group rate. Upon the termination of group medical benefits, the employee may continue those benefits as provided for under COBRA.
- 417 b. Group dental benefits for an Employee who is off the payroll and absent because of an unpaid medical leave due to injury or illness shall be continued by EMU for up to twelve (12) weeks.
- 418 c. After twelve (12) months, the employee may continue life insurance benefits at his/her own expense by making application directly to the life insurance carrier.
- 420 e. To qualify for the benefits as described above, each Employee must individually make proper application for such benefits by applying for a leave of absence with the appropriate human resource office and providing such medical documentation as needed to make a determination of eligibility.
- 421 6. An Employee's medical benefits plan shall terminate effective at the end of the month in which the Employee is terminated, is laid off, the group medical benefits plan terminates, or the Employee goes on unpaid leave, resigns, or retires, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement.
- 422 7. In many cases COBRA requires that the opportunity to continue medical and dental benefits be extended:
- 423 a. to Employees who voluntarily or involuntarily have terminated employment (except in cases of gross misconduct) or who have reduced their hours or had their hours reduced to such extent that they are ineligible for coverage;

- 424 b. to surviving eligible spouses and dependents upon the death termination of employment or reduction in hours, that period is determined by the U.S. Department of Labor. For benefits lost by eligible spouses or dependents of an Employee due to the occurrence of other events that trigger COBRA coverage. In accordance with COBRA, EMU shall require payment of a premium for the period of coverage continuation and shall charge up to the maximum premium allowed by COBRA.

- 429 9. All other specific terms, conditions, limits of liability and exclusions applicable to said insurance, shall be as provided for in the University's policy with its carrier.

430 D. Waiver of Medical Health Care Benefits

431 An Employee who is otherwise eligible to participate in the Employer's Group Medical Benefits Plan may elect to waive such coverage, provided s/he makes proper application to the Benefits Office, showing evidence of coverage through a plan other than one provided by the Employer.
 Employees for whom the waiver is granted will receive $2,000 per year (not added to base salary), prorated for the period medical health care coverage is waived. Employees waiving coverage may re-enroll in the Employer's health plans upon showing proof that the health coverage on which they relied is no longer available, or during the annual open enrollment period. No contributions will be made to TIAA based on this waiver payment.

432 An Employee who has decided to retain coverage for himself/herself and eligible dependent children but who nevertheless desires to waive coverage for his/her spouse, may elect to waive such coverage, provided
 s/he makes proper application to the Benefits Office showing evidence of coverage through a plan other than one provided by the Employer.
 Employees for whom the waiver is granted will receive $600 per year (not added to base salary), prorated for the period medical health care

Commencing with the month following completion of one (1) year of coverage as provided above, the Employer shall pay the cost for maintaining life insurance benefits in an amount equal to the Employee's base salary (rounded up to the nearest $1,000) times two (2), and an accidental death and dismemberment benefit in an equal amount, up to a maximum coverage level of $200,000.

435 When an Employee reaches age sixty-five (65) and continues working, the Employee's insurance coverage is decreased by thirty-five percent (35%) with no further reduction based on age thereafter.

436 To qualify for the life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance benefits as described above, each Employee must individually enroll and make proper application for such coverage at the Benefits Office within thirty (30) calendar days of the commencement of the Employee's regular employment with the Employer. Base salary excludes supplemental appointments and any other extra compensation.

437 An Employee's group life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance benefits shall terminate effective on the date that an Employee is terminated, resigns or retires, or the group life and accidental death plan terminates. However, when an Employee terminates employment with EMU, the Employee is covered for a grace period of thirty-one (31) calendar days. During such thirty-one (31) day period, the Employee may convert the Employee's group life insurance, without medical examination, to an individual benefits plan. The Employee will pay the full cost of such individual benefits. Plan options and availability shall be determined by the insurer.

438 All other specific terms, conditions, limits of liability and exclusions applicable to said insurance shall be as provided for in the Employer's policy with its carrier.

Employee is terminated, the dental care benefits plan terminates, or

However, an Employee may continue his/her dental care benefits at the Employee's own expense for the period mandated in the Employee's circumstances by COBRA and as provided herein.

- 447 5. Additions and changes to the Employee's dental care benefits coverage must be made within thirty (30) calendar days of a qualifying event (i.e., marriage, birth, adoption) by contacting the Benefits Office and completing the appropriate change form. All subsequent attempts

Joint Committee on Course Equivalencies

It is hereby understood and agreed between Eastern Michigan University and the EMUFT that a joint committee on Full-Time Lecturer course equivalencies will be formed to study the factors for which equivalency credit (towards meeting the contractual credit hour norm) may be awarded, as described in the Workload article of the Agreement.

A committee consisting of four (4) Full-Time Lecturers selected by the President of the EMUFT and four (4) administrators selected by the Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic and Student Affairs shall be formed during the Fall Semester of 2018. The parties will each designate a co-chair from their respective committee members.

The joint committee is charged with:

- Gathering data about the teaching loads assigned to Full-Time Lecturers, including the provision of equivalency credit, released time, and overload teaching assignments.
- Gathering data on the process by which equivalency credit, released time, and overload assignments are provided to Full-Time Lecturers in each department, and/or in consultation with the Deans and Associate Deans.
- Analyzing this data and providing their findings and recommendations to the President of the EMUFT and the Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic and Student Affairs by no later than February 15, 2020.

The parties further agree that:

- Equivalencies that were in place for specific courses taught by Full-Time Lecturers as of Fall 2017 and Winter 2018 will be continued through Winter 2020. No new equivalencies should be created during this period; that is, past practices concerning courses in place prior to Fall 2018 shall continue until such a time that the recommendations of the committee can be implemented.
- Release time for Full-Time Lecturers serving on the committee will be allotted as follows for the two-year term of the committee (unless the committee completes its work earlier). This release may be taken as an overload.
 - FTL Co-Chair: Three (3) credit hours per semester (Fall and Winter only), distributed as follows:
 - Year 1 (2018-2019) 3 CH Fall, 3 CH Winter
 - Year 2 (2019-2020) 3 CH Fall, 3 CH Winter

- FTL Committee Members: Three (3) credit hours per academic year (Fall and Winter only), distributed as follows:
 - Year 1 (2018-2019): 1 CH Fall, 2 CH Winter; or 3 CH Winter 2019
 - Year 2 (2019-2020): 2 CH Fall, 1 CH Winter; or 3 CH Fall 2019
- Subject to final approval, and pursuant to Article XVII, “Workload,” A., “Equivalency Credit,” it is the intent of the parties to implement the recommendations of the committee for academic year 2020-2021.

It is further specifically understood and agreed by the parties to this Agreement that the provisions stated above are consistent with the Collective Bargaining Agreement between EMU and the EMUFT, and therefore, that the provisions herein will not alter, modify, or otherwise establish precedent for future interpretation or application of that Agreement.
